LITERARY UNSEEN PASSAGES

1. Read the following passages carefully and answer the questions that follow :

PASSAGE - I

Of all the trees of Southern Asia, the banyan tree is unique, not only for the manner of its growth but for the area of shade it provides from the burning sun. Its close relationship with man has evolved over the years to make the banyans a most popular meeting place, a focal point of worship and a source of practical materials for commerce.

Known as the 'strangler fig', because of its unusual manner of growth, the banyan is an epiphyte or air plant that has its birth in the branches of a host tree and lives on airborne moisture and nutrients. Banyan seeds are deposited by birds, bats or monkeys in the rich soil collected in the crevices of the host tree branches.

As the banyan grows, it sends aerial roots down the trunk of the supported tree. In time, the roots that reach the ground choke the host tree by preventing its trunk from enlarging. The two best known species of banyans are : the Indian, one of the world's largest tropical trees; and the Chinese, a smaller species with fewer aerial roots.

PASSAGE - 2

Classroom life is shaped and constrained by the norms, values and traditions of the school. The classroom is a social system which has its own structural arrangements, cultural idioms, and functional purposes. This sets apart the classroom culture of a school and the children constantly pick up what comes across including the unspoken.

Also the interaction of children with teachers in the course of a day depends on : the type of teacher i.e. volunteer, group coordinator, trainee, the nature of work i.e. project v/s training and the setting i.e. classroom, grounds, dining hall, meditation hall etc. Intergroup variation in children's interaction with teachers is evident. While the younger children i.e. those up to 6 - 7 years of age do not react differently, children of older groups 7 to 10 years show clear demarcating lines among teachers, i.e. the group coordinators or full time teachers being considered higher in status than volunteers and trainee teachers, therefore children give more weightage to their instructions i.e. "listen to them". This in turn affects the student's behaviour towards the teacher and also the quality of interaction.

(i) What aspects of the school help to define a classroom life ?

Ans. Norms' values and traditions of the school help to define a classroom life.

(ii) Which factors define the classroom as a social system ?

Ans. Its structural arrangement, cultural idioms and functional purposes define the classroom as a social system.

(iii) What causes a variation in the interaction of children with teachers?

Ans. Age group and type of the teacher cause a variation in the interaction of children with teachers.

(iv) What are the various roles of a teacher mentioned in the passage ?

PASSAGE - 3

We sometimes think that it would be very nice to have no work to do. How we envy rich people who do not have to work for their living but can do just what they please all the year round. Yet when we feel like this we make a mistake. Sometimes rich people are not as happy as we think they are, because they are tired of having nothing to do. Most of us are happy when we have regular work to do for our living, specially if the work is what we like to do. The first thing work does for us is to give us happiness. He is like a beggar in the streets who takes the money of others who work hard to earn it. Such people do not live independently and ought to feel ashamed of themselves.

But the honest worker who earns his living by useful toil can hold up his head and respect himself. Lastly regular work builds up character. It teaches us such good habits as punctuality, carefulness, thoroughness and faithfulness in work. It is the man who works, not the idler, who as a rule develops the best character.

(i) Why do we envy rich people?

Ans. We envy rich people because they do not have to work for their living and they do what they please all the year round.

(ii) Why are rich people not so happy as we think ?

Ans. Rich people are not so happy as we think because they are tired of having nothing to do.

(iii) What does regular work give us?

Ans. Regular work gives us happiness.

(iv) How can an honest man earn respect in society?

Ans. An honest man can earn respect in society by earning his living by useful toil.

(iv) Write the word from the passage which means : a person who does not work.

PASSAGE -4

I have talked of the necessity for prayer, and I have dealt with the essence of prayer. We are born to serve our fellow men, and we cannot properly do so unless we are wide awake. There is an external struggle raging in man's breast between the powers of darkness and of light, and he, who has not the sheet anchor of prayer to rely upon, will be a victim to the powers of darkness. The man of prayer will be at peace with himself and with the whole world: the man who goes about the affairs of the world, without a prayerful heart, will be miserable and will make the world also miserable. Apart, therefore, from its bearing, on man's condition after death prayer has incalculable value for man in this world of living. We, inmates of the ashrama, who came here in search of Truth and for insistence on Truth, professed to believe in the efficacy of prayer, but had never up to now made it a matter of vital concern. We did not bestow on it the care that we did no other matters. I awoke from my slumber one day and realized that I had been woefully negligent on my duty in the matter. I have, therefore suggested a measure of stern discipline, and far from being any the worse, I hope, we are the better for it, it is so obvious.

(i) Why, according to the author, are we born?

Ans. According to the author, we are born to serve our fellow men.

(ii) What kind of struggle is raging in man's heart?

Ans. The kind of struggle raging in man's heart is between the powers of darkness and of light.

(iii) Why do the inmates come to the Ashrama?

Ans. The inmates come to the Ashram to search for Truth and to insist on Truth.

(iv) What did the author realize one day when he awoke from his slumber?

Ans. When he awoke from his slumber, the author realized one day that he had been woefully negligent on his duty.

(v) Write the word from the passage which means :sleep.

Good books improve our knowledge. I have read many books but I like the Ramcharit Manas most. The Ramcharit Manas is about the noble deeds of Rama. His wife was Sita. Ravan, the king of Lanka, carried her by force in the absence of her husband. So Rama invaded Lanka. Ravan was killed and Rama got back Sita. The main attraction of the book lies in its ideal. Laxman was an obedient brother. Sita was an ideal wife. Bharat had no love for the throne. Rama was always ready to help friends and encourage his followers. Its language is simple and musical. It points out that truth wins at last. This book is my guide, my friend and my teacher.

This scheme was successfully launched by the Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi on 22nd of January in 2015 at Panipat, Haryana. This scheme is to make people aware of the importance of girl child in the Indian society as well as bring some positive changes in the people mindset towards girl child. People in the Indian society have very rude mindset about the girl child. They think that girls are like burden in their life who only need to take whole life from their parents or husbands and never give. However, it is not true, girls occupy almost half population of the world so they are half responsible for the existence of life on the earth. Less importance of girl child in the human society is causing suspense of life existence on the earth as where there is no women, no new birth would be. The continuous decrease in the ratio of girl child per boy child is clearing this issue very well. So, this scheme has been launched by keeping in mind to prevent sex determination, female foeticide, save girl child, ensure safety of girl child, as well as provide quality education to them.

Clause -

A group of words which forms a part of a sentence and contains a subject and a predicate (a finite) of its own is called a clause. The number of finite verbs in a sentence joined by conjunction determines the number of clause. "उपवाक्य शब्दों का वह समूह है जो किसी वाक्य का भाग होता है तथा जिसका अपना उद्देश्य (Subject) तथा विधेय (Predicate) होता है। जैसे -

☞ This is the boy who has stolen my purse. ☞ The guard waved the green flag and the train started.

उपवाक्य (Clause) तीन प्रकार के होते हैं-

1. Principal Clause (मुख्य उपवाक्य) -

इसे Independent Clause या Main Clause भी कहा जाता है। यह अपने अर्थ को स्पष्ट करने के लिए दूसरे Clause पर निर्भर नहीं होता है। इसके प्रारम्भ में कोई Conjunction नहीं होता है, जैसे -

☞ I do not know where does he go. ☞ Sita said that she was going to market.

2. Coordinate Clause (स्वतन्त्र उपवाक्य) -

Principal Clause के साथ जब अन्य स्वतन्त्र वाक्य आते हैं तथा अपना स्वतन्त्र भाव प्रकट करते हैं। तथा अन्य उपवाक्यों पर आश्रित नहीं रहते हैं तथा इसमें साधारण वाक्यों (simple sentence) को coordinate conjunctions से जोड़े जाते हैं, जैसे-

☞ I shall go and she will come. ☞ She worked very hard but she failed.

3. Subordinate Clause (सहायक उपवाक्य) -

यह उपवाक्य स्वतन्त्र रूप से अपना अर्थ तथा भाव व्यक्त नहीं कर पाता। इसे अपना अर्थ प्रकट करने के लिए दूसरे उपवाक्यों पर आश्रित रहना पड़ता है, जैसे-

☞ I know that you are a good boy. ☞ I asked her what she was doing.

Kinds of subordinate clause (सहायक उपवाक्य के प्रकार) -

1. Noun Clause (संज्ञा उपवाक्य)
2. Adjective Clause (विशेषण उपवाक्य)

Noun Clause की पहचान : Main verb के साथ what लगाने से जो उत्तर में clause प्राप्त होती है वह Noun Clause कहलाती है। जैसे -

Question : He is happy to know - what ?
